Soldier Bonus Issue Is Given Over To Senate

Fate Of Measure, Passed By House, Is Somewhat
Uncertain

PRESIDENTIAL VETO CERTAIN FOR BILL

Senate May Kill Measure
Before President Is Forced To Act

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Mar. 13.—The bitterly contested soldiers bonus issue was laid on the doorstep of the senate today after the house, in its first rebellion against President Roosevelt, had passed measure by a vote of 295 to 125.

The bill, administration spokesmen predicted, will not become law during the present session. They foresee either defeat in the senate or upholding of a promised presidential veto.

Leaders of the "veterans bloc" in the senate appeared reluctant to make a fight for the bill pending settlement of the battle over the veterans economy act.

Foresee Fireworks
The most militant senate backers of the bonus-inflation bill including Robinson (R) of Indiana, Long
(D) of Louisiana and Thomas (D) of Oklahoma, were expected to unload fireworks which may cause the session to end in a spectacular fight over the old issue.

The senate only recently voted 64 to 24 against the bonus, but its backers said the unfavorable vote reflected the desire of the senate to avoid complications in the veterans economy controversy.

With the bonus out of the way,
the house plunged into another veterans fight which again threatened to bring a break with the White House.

Several South Side youths took

With the coming of spring it is becoming exceedingly rough in many places.

From zero on Sunday morning to

It looks a little today as if spring is just around the corner.

If one tenth of the buildings that are badly in need of paint, get at-unheard of boom in the painting business. Never in many long years have so many houses and buildings shown the need of a coat of paint, as at the present time.

Williamson Case Suspect Brought Here

Youth Accused Of Shooting
New Wilmington Merchant Under Arrest

Pete Williams, about 20, said to be from Sharon, was brought to New Castle Monday night from Wayne, West Virginia and is charged with the felonious shooting of Fred Williamson of New Wilmington late in 1932. Williams was brought back by State Policeman Longo who took
Mr. Williamson to the West Virginia town on Sunday.

The search for the assailant of Mr. Williamson has been continued by Longo since the time of the shooting. Recently Williams was picked up in Wayne, West Virginia and the authorities here were notified. When Williamson saw the man in Wayne, he said that he felt sure that this was the man and he has been brought back. He is charged with felonious assault and battery with intent to kill, before Alderman Wallace J. Ewing.

The shooting of Williamson was a dastardly thing. He was closing his store for the night when a young man walked in and ordered him to turn over the contents of the cash drawer. Williamson tried to break the man's arm with a wrench he had there, whereupon the man fired point blank twice. The bullets entered Williamson's chest, and for days he hovered between life and death.

Wright, Lindbergh And Chamberlin Are Named To Study Army Air Mail

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Mar. 13.—
Three of the country's outstanding aviation authorities, Orville Wright, the pioneer; Col. Charles
A. Lindbergh, and Clarence Chamberlin, both of whom flew the Atlantic, were named by Secretary of War Dorn today as a special committee to investigate and study the problem of the Army carrying the air mail.

Wright is considered one of the fathers of American aviation, with his late brother, Wilbur, he pioneered in experimenting with heavier-than-aircraft a quarter of a century ago, and ever since those days has retained an active interest in aircraft development.

Lindbergh and Chamberlin are on opposite sides of the air mail controversy.

Soon after Lindbergh telegraphed a protest to President Roosevelt against the annulment of the private air mail contracts last month, Chamberlin sent a telegram to the president upholding his ac-

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Mar. 13.—
Civic leaders from all sections of Eastern Ohio and Western Penn-several important statements on the proposal had been forwarded to Styer before the hearings were be-

It's fine to live in the open spots, with plenty of room to run, it's fine to live out where the fields are broad with a chance at the air and the sun, but there's this about lit-ting back there in the sticks, when the frost comes out of the earth, getting into the bricks is a job that seems to cost considerably more than its worth. Your car bogs down

REVEAL REVELRIES INSIDE PRISON WALLS

Guard Testifies As To Conditions

Milwaukee House Of Correction Probe Brings Revelations

LIQUOR DELIVERED TO PRISON INMATES

(International News Service)
MILWAUKEE, Mar. 13.—Entries taken from the ten year old diary of Charles Lampe, a guard at the House of Correction, today that a story of gay liquor parties and other revelries within the walls of the institution.

Secrets of the workhouse, some of which were held for as long as a decade between the worn covers of Lampe's "little brown book," were read into the record of the county board's inquiry into charges of graft and corruption at the workhouse.

Lampe, off duty while convalescing from an appendicitis operation, nervously thumbed the pages of his diary as he read its passages to the investigators. Among the disclosures were:

Delivered Liquor
That Frank C. Klode, prominent furniture dealer and president of a company that buys the output of the workhouse furniture factor, delivered liquor to the prisoners.

That Gillette A. Benson, deputy inspector, accepted liquor and cigars from William Hurley, bartender at a Tavern, and that the latter had asked Benson to oust Lampe because the guard would not allow him to bring liquor into the institution.

That guards were so "paralyzed" on duty they fell asleep and prisoners took cigars out of their pockets. That guards showed favoritism by delivering alcohol and sandwiches to certain prisoners.

Lampe declared that Vincent Crupi, Milwaukee vice-king recently deported to Italy "threw a New Year's eve drinking party which ended up with 42 shattered windows, wrecked furniture and disrupted routine of the cell house."

Crupi, a prisoner, called him an obscene name while Lampe was obeying orders given him relative to Crupi and other prisoners, the witness testified. When he reported Crupi to Matt Ebert, deputy inspector, Ebert, according to Lampe, declared:

"Leave those men alone."
Klode, the furniture dealer and president of the village board of White Fish Bay, a suburb, emphatically denied Lampe's charges.

"I never on any occasion took liquor into the House of Correction," he declared.

Washington, Mar. 13.—The army air corps was making preparations today to resume operations on nine cross-country air mail routes during the day or tomorrow.

Postmaster General Farley issued a curtailed schedule of the service to be continued but the resumption of operations, air corps officials said, will depend upon completion of certain reforms ordered Saturday when President Roosevelt grounded all mail planes and ordered the army's schedule be curtailed sharply in the interest of safety.

The new schedule follows: from New York to San Francisco, via Chicago and Salt Lake City; New York to Jacksonville, Fla.; Washington to Atlanta, Chicago to Dallas, via St. Louis and Kansas City; Salt Lake City to Seattle, Salt Lake City to San Diego, via Los Angeles; Chicago to Denver, Chicago to St. Paul and Boston to New York.

The mileage on these routes is about 25 percent of the total covered by private operators prior to cancellation of air-mail contracts February 19.

Lawyer-Prisoner Ready To Talk

Attorney Convicted Along With Gaston B. Means Will Tell Where Money Is Hidden

SAYS MEANS KNOWS KIDNAPING FACTS

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 13.—Norman Whitaker, imprisoned lawyer companion of Gaston B. Means, convicted of swindling Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean of $104,000 on pretense of recovering the kidnapped Lindbergh baby, is expected to bargain for his freedom by telling where the money is hidden.

Roger Robb, district attorney who helped to prosecute "The Fox" and Means on charges of attempting to swindle Mrs. McLean out of an additional $40,000, said Whitaker had written him of a "final split" with Means and that he was ready to tell where the money was cached.

Whitaker wrote: "I know where the money is that means received from Mrs. McLean. Department of Justice agents searching for the money almost found it twice. They were very close. I did not receive any of the money. Means kept it all. He also knows the inside story of the Lindbergh kidnaping."

Robb declared he believed Whitaker is ready to tell all he knows about the sensational case and has turned the letter over to Department of Justice agents.

STORY OF SHOOTING OF ROSE BALOGH IS PRESENTED TO JURY

tively the same place near the heart, but that the bullet had deflected and had taken an upward course, coming out near the arm. By the nature of his cross examination Attorney S. L. Clark apparently intended to establish the fact that Mozes was serious in his attempt at suicide and that only a whim of fate saved Mozes and took the life of his sweetheart.

Coroner Orville Potter testified to having viewed the body and held the inquest and identified a bullet taken from Rose Balogh's body. Dan Fusco, a youngster of about 17 years was the next witness called and gave eye witness testimony.

Tells Of Shooting.
"I was standing in the bedroom window of our home on Long avenue about 6:30 or 6:45 on the evening of January 12," said Fusco, "waiting on a friend of mine to come down."

"I saw a man and a woman walking east on Long avenue but paid little attention to them until I heard a scream. Then I heard two shots. I looked over at the couple and saw the man and the woman standing there. Apparently the man was trying to push her off the sidewalk."

"Then I heard another scream and two more shots. I rushed down stairs and passed Joe Jardino. I looked up the street and saw a tall man hurrying up the gully. A little later he crossed Long avenue and went north on Cunningham avenue and disappeared from view."

Flags A Car.
"I walked over to the body of the woman lying on the sidewalk and stooped down to see if she was still breathing. She seemed to be and I tried to flag an automobile. One car slowed up and then hurried on, and then a truck came along. It stopped and the driver helped me put the woman's body in the back of the truck. Then I went upstairs and washed my hands."

On cross examination Mr. Clark indicated his line of defense, that there was a struggle between the two on the night of the shooting and that the gun went off in the scuffle. "Were the man and the woman struggling," asked Clark.

"Well, the man looked as though he was trying to shove the woman off the sidewalk," replied the boy. "You say you heard two shots, twice?"

"Wouldn't there be an echo at that spot, with a hollow and a bank directly across?"

The witness did not know. (There were but two shots fired from the gun which apparently proves Clark's theory of an echo.)

Boy Found Gun.
William Johns, a boy of about 14, of Randolph street, was called. He was roller skating down Arlington avenue the evening of about 7 o'clock came down Long avenue. With a group of other boys he began hunting for the gun that had been used in the shooting and found it. He gave the gun to Officer D. J. Thomas.

Samuel Taylor, manager of the A. & P. store at which Rose Balogh worked testified to leaving the store with his son and Miss Balogh about 6:20. Near Hamilton street Taylor and his son went into a magazine store and Miss Balogh went on after bidding them goodnight.

Walter Westrick the driver of the truck that took Rose Balogh to the hospital was called and testified to stopping and helping to load the body into the truck and taking it to the New Castle hospital.

Lieutenant Ralph Criswell of the New Castle police was called and testified to going to the New Castle hospital the night of the shooting and seeing Mozes standing near the elevator. Mozes asked Criswell to place him under arrest as he had just shot a girl because she would not marry him, Criswell said.

Testifies To Statement.
Criswell said that a statement was taken from Mozes after he had been informed of his rights and that in the statement Mozes admitted shooting Miss Balogh. Mozes talked a great deal Criswell said and answered questions freely. Criswell identified the gun, the shells and the bullets taken the night of the shooting.

William Blattman, a gunsmith, was called and identified the gun in the case as an old style 38 calibre gun. He also identified the shell as being 38 calibre.

Officer D. J. Thomas was called and testified to taking Mozes' statement in the hospital on a sheet of yellow paper and then taking it to the police station where a sergeant put it into typewriting. Thomas signed it as a witness to the statement and not as a witness to the signature of John Mozes.

Chief of Police John F. Haven was called and identified the various exhibits of the commonwealth, the gun, the bullets, the bags of clothing and the statement.

Mother Sobs Bitterly.

Mrs. Paul Balogh, mother of the deceased girl was in the court room with some of her family and sat in the front row of the courtroom almost directly back of the man who killed her daughter.

As the bag containing the clothing was brought into the court room the aged lady could not control herself and sobbed bitterly. She was comforted by the members of her family.

The crux of the commonwealth case will probably be put into evidence this afternoon. The preliminary evidence is in and what remains now is to show the motive of John Mozes in shooting Rose Balogh. This will be done by statement and letters.

Immediately after the vote, however, individual Democrats began excusing themselves from the caucus rule on the ground of previous commitments. Sixty-seven had excused themselves early today with others expected to follow.

See Second Rebellion
With Republicans ready to vote for the senate veterans amendments, house leaders were doubtful whether they could stave off the second rebellion against the White House.

The real fight over the veterans issue centered upon liberal amendments in behalf of Spanish-American war veterans voted by the senate. The administration demanded a paring down of the senate provision restoring Spanish war veterans and dependents to the rolls on a 90 percent basis at an estimated cost of $69,564,000.

The house appropriations committee was called into session to decide whether to obey the caucus mandate to seek a rule sending the bill to conference or throw it open to a free-for-all vote on the floor.

cell, must die in the electric chair, according to the verdict.

The jury for Makley's trial was expected to be completed late today or tomorrow.

The warning that John Dillinger, the phantom fugitive, is "on his way here" was announced by Judge Everett from the bench after a day replete with rumors and reports as to the gangster's whereabouts.

The jurist's statement was made after defense attorney Jessie Levy had pleaded that Makley be unshackled in the courtroom. He claimed that the 15 pounds of chain around his wrists and ankles would tend to lead a jury to believe that the defendant was "a bad character."

STUDENTS OPPOSE 'DIME-A-DAY' PLAN
(International News Service)
COLUMBUS, O.—Inferring that they are worth more than ten cents students at Ohio State University, here turned down the "dime-a-day" plan, proposed as an aid to bashful campus swain.

The plan was submitted through the campus student senate and proposed the establishment of a "date bureau" where students would register for 25 cents and get dates at the rate of ten cents each.

The Lantern, student daily newspaper, derided the proposal and took a stand against "the commercialization of love."

"We would rather depend on our own initiative" the students said.

BRILLIANT RECITAL AT FIRST M. E. CHURCH

A brilliant and successful recital was heard last evening when the Music club presented Edwin Lewis in an organ recital at the First M. E. church. He was assisted by Miss Ceinwen John, soprano.

The recital had a quality of freshness, spontaneity and vigor that it made a deep impression of the distinguished audience which filled the auditorium. This was evident by the applause which greeted both artists.

Mr. Lewis' playing was characterized by spirit, finish and delicacy as to every detail of registration. His program opened with a group of early classics. The Prelude of Correlli, played with the dignity of that period, was followed by a charming Traditional Pastorale arranged for the modern organ by Cloney.

There was a distinct contrast in the next number, Correlli's Sarabande, which was played with beauty of phrase and proportion. The sparkling Mureauo Toccato and Handel Concerto Op. 4, No. 5, completed the first group of organ numbers.

The French school of organ playing was represented by the March Funebre at Chant Seraphique by Guilman, which was given majestic reading, calling into power the full strength of the organ.

Three compositions of Garth Edmundson's followed, the first of which "An Elfin Dance" was ten for this recital. In this highly imaginative composition which Mr. Lewis played with rare delicacy of registration, one was easily carried away to the atmosphere of the title.

To the "Setting Sun", which is dedicated to Mr. Lewis, was followed by the Toccata from the First Symphony, which brought the program to a brilliant close. Mr. Edmundson was called upon to stand to receive recognition for his great work as a composer.

Miss John proved herself an accomplished singer. Her voice, powerful in tonal splendor, rich in quality, and effective in dramatic expression, stirred her audience after the aria, "Ocean, Thou Mighty Monster" from the opera "Oberon". To her second group of songs, Miss John imparted the passion, the fancies, the picture that each song summoned. As Miss John leaves the last of the month for her home in Wales, she carries with her best wishes for a safe voyage and success in her chosen work.

Mrs. J. L. Reed, club president, was hostess for the evening. Ushers were Mrs. Paul Welsh, Mrs. D. Duff Scott, Mrs. Kathryn Allen, Mrs. Dorothy Gormley Smith, Miss Ruth Drescher, and Miss Margaret Graham.

Altogether, the recital was one of those events which come too seldom and are thoroughly enjoyed alike by musicians and others who merely love beautiful music.

Y. P. C. U. BANQUET IN THIRD CHURCH

The annual banquet of the Y. P. C. U. members of the Third United Presbyterian church was held Monday evening in the dining room of the church, which had been beautified for the event by the addition of shamrock and other novelties suggestive of the St. Patrick season. Long green candles burned on the tables, about which were seated the guests.

Edith Zeisler acted as toastmaster and cleverly introduced the various numbers on the program as well as raising a lot of merriment by the witty jibes she made at various members.

A trumpet solo by Arthur McNickle and a reading and John Kyle a splendid vocal number.

Rev. S. D. McBride was the speaker of the evening and his talk was most suitable to young people, having as its theme "What Am I Going to Be?"

At the conclusion of the program, Miss Mabel Kocher took charge and Margaret Sankey, chairman of the nomination committee reported for the election, which resulted in Edgar McCown being named president; Catherine Newberry, vice president; Caroline Lawton, recording secretary; Katherine Hopper, corresponding secretary; Elmer Gorman, treasurer; John Kyle, marshal and Mabel Kocher, press reporter.

BUSINESS SIGNS POINT UP

REGARDLESS of the gold contest of our dollars the public is buying more commodities. Fourteen leading chain stores report for February a gain of over 14 per cent. The same group in January enjoyed an increase in sales of 15 per cent.

Steel mill output has risen to 50 per cent of capacity, while more freight cars are being loaded now than in any week during all of last year. Electric power generated continues to increase, which reflects the larger use of it to keep industrial mills in operation.

Automobile sales have expanded handsomely and exports of American cars keeps pace with the larger domestic purchases.

Many business men, however, feel that this progress toward a national trade rejuvenation is not entirely due to the so-called constructive legislation at Washington. They base their opinion upon the fact that a similar and equally strong revival in nearly all kinds of business has occurred in Canada and England, where no such legislation is applied.

COLD MONTH BRINGS ONE BOOM

Expressions of amazement and complaint were common during the extreme cold weather of February, which crowded more sub-zero temperatures into its brief 28 days than has any like period in this section done for years and years.

But the cold weather had its good points, as well, among which the increased demand for fuel and the stimulating effect upon Pennsylvania mining was one of the most prominent.

Figures compiled show beyond doubt that the demand for coal has used up "mountains" of surplus and put thousands of miners back on steady working schedules. The February weather did, in fact, create the heaviest demand for coal the state has known in more than a decade.

The effects of this development are not difficult to follow. Increased mine payrolls put several millions of dollars into circulation, thus stimulating the business of stores, shops and general trades.

The railroads called back additional workers and put into service rolling stock which had stood idle for months.

And the used-up surpluses of coal call for replacement, assuring steady work for some weeks to come, even if milder weather does prevail.

INCREASE HIGHWAY PATROL

Addition of from 100 to 300 men to the State Highway Patrol to keep pace with the steady expansion of the road system is being urged by the Pennsylvania Motor Federation.

Appeal for an augmented highway patrol is being carried to Governor Pinchot who, according to the P. M. F., is authorized to increase the force as he sees fit. Secretaries and managers of the eighty-one federated motor clubs, meeting in Harrisburg recently, adopted a resolution calling for an increase of from 100 to 300 in the patrol force, on the grounds that a patrol with sufficient man power to keep watch over all public highways day and night will do more to check reckless driving and reduce accidents than any other single factor.

"The motor patrol is to the highways of Pennsylvania what a police department is to a well-regulated community," said S. Edward Gable, president of the state motor club organization. "The patrol at present is doing excellent work and its services are greatly appreciated by the great majority of motor car owners and drivers, but the force is entirely too small to police even the main highways efficiently. This should not be for the great system of roads in Pennsylvania should be as carefully and systematically patrolled as a city street, day and night throughout the year."

"Not only does enforcement of the law fall within the scope of the highway officers, but they must, and do, endeavor in every way to help the motorist and educate him in safety measures. The road that is patrolled by an able officer is much safer in many respects than that over which no minion of the law keeps watch, and is traveled with a greater degree of personal comfort by the law-abiding motorist and pedestrian. The motor patrolman not only enforces the law through active effort, but his very presence on the highway has a psychological effect on the motorist that tends to make him more careful and more law-abiding and which, in consequence, makes the highways safer for all users.

"The State of Pennsylvania can spend motor fund moneys no more wisely than by providing more men for the highway patrol. At least 100 men should be added now, and these augmented by several hundred more as funds are available.

"The motorists of Pennsylvania owe a debt of gratitude to the members of the highway patrol for the part they play in safeguarding the lives and property of all users of the highways. The great majority of Pennsylvania car owners and drivers are back of our efforts to have the highway patrol force enlarged to keep pace with the steady expansion of the commonwealth's road system."

THE GREATER KINDNESS

You may be urging your aged parents to give up their home and come to live with you.

So far they have resisted your requests.

This fact surprises you, for you feel that it would be possible for you to provide them many more comforts than it is possible for them to enjoy in their own home.

But you have not taken into consideration the most important things in the lives of elderly persons, their friends and scenes which have become dear because of association.

The old home may not be pretentious but it provides the things most dear to the old folks; for each piece of furniture brings back memories they do not want to forget.

Of course you and yours would be kind to them, furnish greater physical comfort perhaps, but there would be the great big something missing.

If you feel that you wish them to be more comfortable, and feel they must have more care, why not have these things incorporated in their old home?

They want quiet and peace and old associations.

Don't try to team them away from them.

The World

ACROSS THE BORDER

A group of thirty farmers near Lacrosse, Saskatchewan, have again demonstrated the truth in "necessity is the mother of invention."

They have a home-made telephone circuit fifty miles long, operated entirely over barbed wire fences. Provision is made for connections with outside systems. Batteries from old cars supply the "juice." A generator from an automobile was attached to a windmill which charges batteries for telephones and radios.

Farmers who have radios move them up close to the telephone, take down the receiver, and invite their neighbors who have no radio to listen in.

Extra headphones and loud speakers enable whole families to enjoy the programs.

Dear me, what would the American Bell Telephone Company say to such an arrangement in this country.

Just Folks

JACK MINER'S FAME

At Kingsville on Lake Erie is a little patch of ground.
The stopping place for geese and swan when north or southward bound.
And every spring and autumn come thousands from the air
To visit with Jack Miner, who bids them welcome there.

From pole to pole the wildfowl have spread Jack Miner's fame.
The Youngest goose in Canada "y now has learned his name."
And so to old Jack Miner this simple thought I pen:
He's better known in bird life than in the haunts of men.

For every mallard flying and every whistling swan
Knows Miner is a human he can depend upon.
And when they near his gardens they know the danger's done;
That friendly hands will feed them and none will bear a gun.

Some men among their fellows are known for what they do,
Their names are in the papers; their pictures printed, too.
But Miner's fame is different—'tis seldom told in words;
He's one among the millions who's honored by the birds.

Bible Thought
For Today

Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before envy?—Proverbs 27:4.

FROM UNCLE SAM'S MAIL
Some of the letters which are pouring into Washington by the ton, asking for work or to be put on the "relief" rolls, exhibit some unintentional humor. Here are just a few: they are not the funniest but give the idea:

"I have a young baby and he is my only means of support."
"I am writing this to find out why I have not received my elopement money."

"I wish you would look over the list of 'forgotten men' and see if my name is there."

"Please send me $100 by wire, as my landlady threatens to throw me out on the street."

APPLY NAMED
They were discussing winter sports. "By the way," said the young bachelor, "can you tell me why the word 'skis' is nearly always pronounced 'shes'?"

His much-married friend gave a cynical smile.

"Yes," he said. "Probably it's because a notice never knows what they are going to do next."

EYE WINS OVER EAR
Picture our astonishment, after sitting through an opera some years back, to discover in the program that it had been in English.

"Happily" says an optimist, "we are coming through the economic revolution without losing our sense of humor," but that's one thing that wasn't banked.

Only the higher education operating through our professional adjunct of government could describe rat-catching as an "ectoparasitic rodent survey." Nor can one imagine why such a high-sounding title should be employed to justify a measly little appropriation of $218,000.

FOR A SUCCESSFUL MARRIAGE
Chicago's famous divorce judge, Joseph Sabbath, who has granted 40,000 divorces and affected 2,100 reconciliations in his more than 20 years on the bench, claims most ailments in homes are due to trivialities and offers the following 10 rules for marital bliss: 1. Have patience with each other. 2. Work together. 3. Play together. 4. Grow up together.

Foil Plan To Blow Up Walls Of Ohio Prison

Note In Code Reveals Desperate Plan To Liberate Convicts

(International News Service)

COLUMBUS, O., Mar. 13.—An attempt by a convict to pass a coded note to his mother resulted in the discovery of a sensational plot to affect a wholesale escape by dynamiting the walls of Ohio penitentiary, Warden Preston E. Thomas revealed today.

The plot, which involved about seven or eight convicts in the prison, was brought to light and frustrated when prison officials yesterday succeeded in deciphering the hieroglyphics of the coded note after four days of intensive studying of the message.

Had the elaborate and daring plot been carried through, it probably would have resulted in a disaster equal to the horrible prison fire tragedy which occurred just four years ago this spring, prison officials said.

Planned To Blow Up Walls

The plan called for the dynamiting of the thick prison walls with the outside assistance of Neal G. Bowman, notorious fugitive and insane bandit of Southern Ohio who has been at large since he scrambled over the walls of the Lima hospital for the criminal insane last Christmas.

Ringleaders of the daring plot, according to Warden Thomas were Howard Bowman, brother of Neal, Joe Filkowski, a convicted murderer, known as Cleveland's "public enemy No. 1" and Edward Klenzing, a "stool" of the convict Bowman.

It was through Klenzing and his mother that the scheming Bowman hoped to contact his brother, Neal, and lay the plans for the sensational escape plot. Alert prison guards, however, found the note on Klenzing as he was being searched before being allowed to talk with his mother in the prison recently.

Warden Thomas said the note was written by Howard Bowman.

In addition to the dynamiting of the prison wall, the scheme also included plans, the warden said to invade the arsenal of the Ohio National Guard to obtain weapons, and also a plan to seize a high-powered automobile in which to flee the city to a farm where the escaped convicts would "hideout at till it's safe to get out of the state."

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Mar. 13.—Even the muskrats are going in for "platinum blonde" hair.

Such a specimen, recently captured by a trapper, has become the property of O. W. Hummel, of Allentown, who intends conducting an extensive search for another of similar coloring for breeding purposes.

Attorney W. W. Stevenson, in charge of the Federal Farm Loans here, says that the Federal Land Bank has had to take back very few properties on which loans have been made. The local branch now has only three farms, which it expects to be able to dispose of this spring.

One Risk No Mother Can Afford to Take

Grave Danger in Giving Child Unknown Drugs

A CHILD'S health is too precious for parents to risk a child's life beyond the price of pennies.

That's something, of course, that every mother's instinct tells her. The protective instinct that makes her value her child's life far beyond her own.

Yet — every day, principally through lack of proper knowledge, thousands of mothers gamble the welfare of their children on unknown drugs.

The road to safety lies along the path of your doctor's orders. And never go against them.

Doctors Say PHILLIPS' For Your Child

Now, when it comes to the very important and frequently used — "milk of magnesia," doctors for over fifty years have said "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" — the safe remedy for your child.

Remember this, for your child's sake, when you buy. Remember "bargain" substitutes are not the "same" as genuine Phillips'. They're not "like" it. They CAN'T be. For the secret laboratory method used in making Genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia has never gone outside the Phillips' Laboratories.

See That Your Child Gets It

In internal remedies you deserve the best that men know. Insist, therefore, on the genuine Phillips' — the product of the world's leading laboratory in milk of magnesia production. A laboratory whose sole object is to produce the finest that science knows in Milk of Magnesia.

Our interest in this does not matter. But yours does. You can't afford to gamble with health. Get genuine Phillips' at any store at the same price or lower than imitations.

Phillips' Milk of Magnesia is available in both the liquid and convenient tablet form.

Industries To Study Plan Of Higher Wages

Industrialists Will Go To Washington For Conferences With Roosevelt

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Mar. 13.—Plans to study, made by President Roosevelt and Recovery Administrator Hugh S. Johnson, to shorten hours and increase wages were shaping into demands today as the first of two groups gathered to meet with the administrator.

Before closing last week's conference of code authorities, Johnson divided the industrialists into two groups. The manufacturers of capital goods and the producers of consumer goods. The first of these groups is scheduled to visit Johnson today and present an alternative to the "ten and ten" plan outlined by Mr. Roosevelt and Clarified by the general.

Increase Wages

The program is to reduce working hours by ten percent and to increase wages in like manner. That the industrialists are serious in their consideration of the proposed program is indicated by their return to the Capital in less than a week after Johnson laid down his "cut and dried" rule. That rule Johnson defined without qualification as:

"In this emergency and until pay-rolls catch up with employment is proper to encourage increased wages and reduced hours per week."

The industrialists pleaded their businesses could not withstand the burden of this rule, but Johnson was adamant in declaring that exemptions might be allowed where certain industries could prove their entitlement to them.

Provide Alternative

To all other pleas made by industrialists since his debate with George Sloan, president of the Textile Institute, Johnson has declared that "industry must provide an alternative" for the "ten and ten" formula as produced by Mr. Roosevelt and himself.

One of the alternatives, that is expected to be made, is that the government continue appropriations for its CWA program, it being argued that industry and business eventually will have to bear the burden of the added expense in future taxes.

Another argument under consideration by the groups is that industry be allowed to make great capital expenditures, through loans or otherwise, in a general plan for equipment and maintenance improvement, but at labor standards of today.

Postpone Trials Of Two Bankers

(International News Service)

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Mar. 13.—Defense attorneys, claiming newspaper accounts allegedly served to arouse the public against their clients, won a postponement today in the trials of two Johnstown bankers on charges of irregularities in affairs of their banks.

Judge John H. McCann, sitting at Edensburg, heard objections of counsel for David Barry, president of the First National Bank and George Gartland of the Title Trust and Guarantee Company, and subsequently announced the court's decision to defer trial until next June. Charges against Barry are making false entries and those against Gartland are making false entries and forgery.

New Castle Stamp Club Has Meeting

Ralph F. Davis Is Guest Speaker At Meeting Monday Night

A second meeting of the organized New Castle Stamp Club was held in the Y. M. C. A. Monday night. Officers elected at the meeting of February 26 were installed and the old constitution and by laws adopted.

The president Daniel H. Hennon made an address explaining stamp collecting to those present who were new to collecting, and exhibited an excellent copy of the first U. S. coil stamp ever used, a flat press printed one cent vertical coil of 1902-1903.

Guest speakers were Ralph E. Davis, local Boy Scout executive and M. L. Moses of Bessemer, Pa., who is a member of the Mahoning Valley Stamp Club. It was suggested by Mr. Davis that the future might see the formation of a Collector's Club here to include the present stamp club, the New Castle Coin Club, and to include also collections of Indian Relics and other rarities. Mr. Moses spoke on the effect of the stabilizing of the dollar on the prices of the mint and unused stamps of European countries.

Several new members were taken into the club. The next meeting was set for Monday, March 26 at 7:30 p. m. in the Y. M. C. A. It being agreed to hold the meetings on the second and fourth Mondays of each month.

Wallace, M.D., of New Castle, for some time. He practiced medicine for awhile at Plaingrove.

MERCER TAX LEVY RAISED ONE MILL

MERCER, Mar. 13.—Mercer council fixed the tax levy at 20 mills, an increase of one mill over last year, when a four mill cut was made.

The increase was made necessary when a cut of $100,000 was made in the assessment of real estate, reducing the borough taxes $1900. The expenditures have also been increased through co-operation with the CWA in the local projects. This is considered a good investment as it has brought into the Mercer community several thousand dollars in pay rolls which otherwise would not have been possible. The finance committee also advised a more equitable assessment of the properties of the town in the future.

Prescott Ringer was elected boroughman, succeeding Carl Thompson, who has filled the position for several years. He will be employed on an hourly basis.

Japanese Navy In '36 Will Not Equal The United States

By JAMES R. YOUNG
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

TOKYO, Mar. 13.—Although recent reports emanating from Diet interpellations on naval affairs gave rise to the belief that by 1936 Japan's naval strength would exceed that of the United States, official comparison issued by Minister of Navy Osumi shows that the United States navy under present London treaty limitations would still have an advantage over Japan if vessels beyond the age limit are included.

A ratio of power within the treaty age limit would be slightly in favor of Japan. This latter situation is under debate in Diet discussions causing some authorities to interpret it as meaning that Japan would prepare to substitute a new system whereby she would allocate naval strength in place of the London treaty ratios. This action, however, is not approaching concrete form.

The official statement shows an aggregate ratio of 0.68 for Japan to 1.00 for the United States if old vessels are included and 0.81 for Japan to 1.00 for the United States if only fighting craft within the age limit are counted.

Ships which have outrun their age limit are in American squadrons and war training is being applied with squadrons thus composed, Navy Minister Osumi remarked in submitting his tabulations. Vessels beyond their age limit are not in the least diminished in fighting efficiency, he pointed out.

Osumi's statement includes the American three-year construction plan, 30 vessels of which are within treaty limitations. Projects for building 102 vessels, including an aircraft carrier, A and B class cruisers, 65 destroyers and 30 submarines approved by Congress in December, are not contained in the estimates. The figures herewith are inclusive, in so far as Japan is concerned, of the first replenishment plan and also for the second construction program.

A third replenishment program which was discussed in camera during budget hearings on the navy's requirements for finances during 1934 and 1935, is not definitely known here, but if on an extensive scale there would be the possibility of Japan's strength coming close to that of the United States.

Financial Crisis Is Faced By Erie

Legality Of Tax Levy Is Being Threatened By A Suit In Court

(International News Service)
Erie, Pa., Mar. 13.—With the legality of the local tax levy ordinance being threatened by a court test, the city of Erie faces a grave financial crisis.

If the stand taken by attorneys that the ordinance is in violation of past supreme court rulings is upheld, the city would only have the income from bond issues. The councilmanic bonding power, even at the new assessment of $158,500, amounts to only one-sixth of the city's 1934 budget or $325,000. The budget this year is $1,870,000. If the tax situation is held illegal a serious condition will arise in May when a loan of $350,000 matures. Finance director Thos. McHaffey said he is at a loss to know what the city will do if the tax money is not forthcoming.

This picture shows the machines used to remove the stems from Chesterfield tobaccos.

THIS most modern way of moistening tobacco for stemming—first used in the manufacture of Chesterfields—opens up the pores and puts the tobacco in condition to remove the stems.

The tobacco is put into the wire baskets stems down and enters the long steel ovens where the steam comes up from below, softening the stems without wetting the rest of the leaf.

The stems are removed by stemming machines of the latest type.

Everything that modern science knows about, or money can buy, that can make a milder cigarette, a cigarette that tastes better, is used in making Chesterfield.

Columbus Hatchet-Faced, Freckled, Old Book Tells

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON—Not that it makes much difference, but our old friend Christopher Columbus had a hatchet-face spattered with plenty of freckles. He did not resemble the man with the round face and fair skin as pictured in most of our history books.

These facts, which might start a controversy, have just been brought to light by the Smithsonian Institution where a volume of "The New World" published in 1534 has been re-discovered. The book, written by Michael Herr, is one of the first accounts of Columbus and his voyages. It was found in a collection of old scientific literature at the institution.

Herr's book, which was published in Strassburg, describes Columbus' personal appearance and relates difficulties he had in persuading the king and queen of Spain to finance his voyage.

"Christopher Columbus was a brave, big man with a long, red freckled face," the book says and tells of Columbus' desire to sail westward in this manner.

"He had good hopes that he could discover before sundown several islands which would be of great pleasure and use to the people. With regard to those islands that lay in front of India, he himself expected to find costly pearls and all sorts of precious stones; also spices and much gold."

"The king and queen made fun of him as a man who was engaged in a foolish task and let the thing go as a good joke. At last after eight years had gone by and Christopher continued to beseech the king, the king began to take the proposition a little more to heart and undertook to find out what was back of that man and why he stuck to his proposition."

"Then the king commanded that a galley be outfitted and he also supplied two swift ships, with provisions and whatever else was necessary. When these ships were ready Columbus sailed from the Spanish coast on the first day of the Autumn month in the year after the birth of Christ, 1492, and thus went on his long-desired journey."

Thomas Edwards writes from Pico, Calif., that they are still having earth tremors there from month to month but nothing like that of a year ago.

Mrs. William G. Price, of Los Angeles, Calif., was one of the chief speakers at the St. David's Day celebration conducted at the Welsh church of Los Angeles. Mrs. Price is a former local resident.

Llewellyn Thomas, of South Mercer street, was called last week to Taylor, Pa., by the sudden death of his sister, Mrs. Jane Williams. He is expected to return home sometime this week.

Rev. Henry Harris, of Sharon, has returned home after a visit with some friends at New Castle. He is the pastor of the Welsh Baptist church of Sharon. He was born at Morriston, South Wales.

Code Is Explained To Large Gathering Of Local Truckers

Several hundred truckers gathered in the Rick garage on East Washington street Monday night to hear Benj. G. Eynon, former Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, explain the new truckers code. Mr. Eynon is now the vice chairman of the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association and was one of the group that formulated the code in Washington, D. C.

Every angle of the code was explained, every phase of the trucking industry gone into and for an hour Mr. Eynon told the truckers what they could do and what they couldn't do in the way of hours, rates of pay, and various other phases.

Following his address many questions were asked by the truckers present and some new points developed that will call for decisions by the code authorities. The meeting was presided over by Harley Keis. W. D. Rubright spoke briefly on the milk delivery features of the code and Sergeant McGill of the State Highway Patrol spoke on road safety. Patrolman Michael Sarko was introduced to the crowd.

A number of motor truck association officials from Sharon, Erie and other cities were present.

but don't ignore medical opinion

if you want to —relieve constipation gently and safely —take the exact dose suited to your need
—avoid danger of bowel strain

A doctor will tell you that the careless use of harsh laxatives will often do more harm than good.

Harsh laxatives often drain the system, weaken the bowel muscles, and even affect the liver and kidneys.

Fortunately, the public is fast returning to laxatives in liquid form.

Can Constipation be safely relieved?

"Yes!" say medical men. "Yes!" say thousands who have followed this sensible medical advice: 1. Select a good liquid laxative. 2. Take the dose that you find suited to your system. 3. Gradually reduce the dose until bowels are moving regularly without assistance.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescriptional preparation containing senna, a natural vegetable laxative which relieves constipation gently and safely. Why not try it? Some pill or tablet may be more convenient to carry. But there is no "convenience" in any cathartic that's taken so frequently, you must carry it wherever you go!

What is the "Right" Laxative?

In buying any laxative, read the label. Not the claims, but the contents. If it contains doubtful drugs, don't take it. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin contains no mineral drugs. By using it, you avoid danger of strain.

How many dimes and quarters are spent on "popular" laxatives! How quickly they count up, if you frequently use habit-forming help! A bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin would save you money—and bring you real relief.

Why Doctors give a liquid laxative

The habitual use of harsh salts, or powerful drugs in the highly concentrated form of pills or tablets is risky.

The properly prepared liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement without discomfort or injury. You need not take a "double dose" a day or two later.

The public can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store.

CWA Officials Confer On Wages

State Inspectors Have Conference With Administrator Round Morday

WAGES FOR LABOR UNDER QUESTION

Inspectors Buck and Hicks of the state Administrative office of the CWA were in New Castle Monday where they had a conference with Louis B. Round, Administrator for Lawrence county relative to the amount being paid for laboring wages under the CWA here.

The state inspectors held that the scale of 50 cents per hour which is being paid here should be reduced to 40 cents but Mr. Round contended that with the reduction of hours to 24 per week, $9.60 was not enough for a laboring man to subsist on and in the end won his point.

Under the 50 cent scale, laborers are receiving but $12 per week. In industry the laborer who received but 40 cents can work as much as 40 hours per week and would thus receive $15. If the work here were permitted to work longer hours Mr. Round stated that he would agree to a reduction in wages.

Caught In Store Where He Worked

Conflicting Testimony Of Police And John Evans In Charge Against Latter

The case of John Evans, charged with breaking and entering the Premier Supply Company building at Ellwood City, which has been on trial before Judge James A. Chambers of Lawrence County court went to the jury shortly before noon today.

The testimony showed that Harry Caplan, who manages the business had Evans employed as a handy man adjoining the store. Evans lived in rooms at the store.

The company had been missing groceries for some time, and enlisted the aid of the police to catch the thief. Police spent several nights concealed in the store. Finally, one night in December, 1933, Policeman Hartman concealed himself in the store.

As Evans was bending over looking at some object, Hartman ordered him to throw up his hands. He was taken to police station. It was found that there was a door which was supposed to have been nailed up between the rooms of Evans and the store. The nails had been removed. Police testified that they found a sack of flour and a bag containing canned goods in Evans room.

Evans, in his own behalf, denied that he had been the person who had been entering the store. He explained that on the night he was arrested he had heard a noise in the store and had gone in to investigate. Evans was not charged with stealing the goods, but with breaking and entering.

Federal Government Holds Large Interest In Banks Of Nation

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

(Copyright, 1934, By International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Mar. 13.—The federal government, through the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, has acquired a half-billion dollar part ownership in the nation's banking structure.

In addition to this direct, authorized interest through investment in preferred stocks, capital notes and debentures and loans in preferred stocks, the RFC has another stake in loans of more than $700,000,000 to banks secured by the usual collateral.

The government's interest embraces both some of the largest and smallest banks of the nation, and has been increasing steadily since congress authorized the investment on March 24, 1933.

Through the RFC investments, Uncle Sam has an ownership approaching one-sixth of the capital of all banks as disclosed in the last annual report of the comptroller of the currency.

While officials of the R. F. C. have disclaimed any intention of interfering with banks and trust company operations, the huge investment places the government in a position to wield powerful influence in shaping the affairs of the financial institutions.

With the administration driving hard to induce banks to sell preferred stock to the RFC to provide capital to revive industry, it is expected that the policy will be expanded rapidly.

During March, 1933, the first month during which investments were made, preferred stock was purchased in four banks and two loans were made on preferred stock.

The record of stock, capital note and debenture purchases and loans on preferred stock then follows: Four in April; 16 in May; 24 in June; 41 in July; 29 in August; 25 in September; 29 in October; 141 in November and 2,030 in December.

Figures for January are unavailable.

A total of more than 2,400 banks are shown to have obtained funds from the RFC through these methods—which do not include direct loans on the usual collateral. The total is about one-sixth of all national and state banks and trust companies, but many duplications are embraced in the various classes of advances.

During the 10-month period only 15 banks cancelled their sale of preferred stock and two cancelled their sale of capital debentures.

The half billion dollar ownership includes over $15,000,000 of loans on preferred stock authorized, over $255,000,000 in preferred stock purchases and more than $227,000,000 in authorized purchase of capital notes and debentures.

AROUND CITY HALL

Until this year there had never been a comprehensive, daily check of what service each member of the city police department renders.

However, nowadays, Chief Haven can thumb the pages of his record book and tell any member of the department how many arrests he has made, how many calls he has answered and how many tags for auto law violations he has distributed.

Ada Blews, is a colored girl. She was arrested with other colored folk on charges of suspicion Sunday. During Monday morning police court she amused the spectators by chewing snuff. And did she enjoy it, nothing else but.

B. F. Butler, streets department director, believes that the present winter, in comparison to past winters for years gone by, has been severe on the streets department. For instance last Saturday it was necessary for employees of the streets department to ash some hill thoroughfares twice. Butler promised when he took office that he would have streets ached. The city does not legally have to ash streets but the citizens now look forward to hills being skid proof.

Reports state that several Stop signs in various sections are in need of attention and when this was brought to the attention of Chief of Police Haven he promised an immediate investigation. However, it might be explained that the department has its sign trouble. In years gone by a rather neat appropriation was made or signs. Last year $501 was design. 1 and the same amount this year. To purchase a sign would cost $1.05. The city makes and paints its own signs at an approximate cost of 50 cents. Wear and tear and in some instances theft of signs adds to the cost.

Police chronology for 48 hours ending March 12, thirteen arrests, on charges as follows: drunkenness 5, suspicion 5, violation of parking laws 3.

A. E. Tullis, a citizen of the West Side was in city hall today and remarked: "Just say a few words about that Scotch Pine tree we have on the West Side." It was a donation according to Tullis, it is a very pretty 18 foot tree.

Police courtroom contains four pictures there, three of presidents and one of a philanthropist, whose every thought was for the benefit of mankind. The presidential pictures of George Washington, Abraham Lincoln and Franklin D. Roosevelt are suspended on the walls. Between the pictures of Lincoln and Washington is that of the late David Jamison.

Due to the city garbage department having only four trucks, one of which is in the repair shop half of the time, tin cans are piling up. However it will not be long until another truck will be imperative.

It isn't often that sickness keeps Director of Safety Davies away from his desk but a bad cold threw him for a down yesterday. Some of the downtown sidewalks are covered with ice. Why not bulletin the lots owned by the city and let them out for garden purposes if they can be tilled? Members of the park committee will meet Parks Superintendent J. D. Alexander tonight. Spring is coming, warning of which was given in the request of the Shade Tree commission which requests: "Don't destroy wild flowers; protect Dogwood."

Past Commanders Club Will Meet

Making Arrangements For Dinner In Castleton, Friday, April 13

Arrangements are now going forward for the dinner and meeting of the "Friday, the Thirteenth, Club", composed of past commanders of the local veterans' organizations, which will have its first meeting since organization Friday evening, April 13, in the little dining room of The Castleton.

The committee in charge of arrangements is now shaping up plans for the event, and a splendid program is looked forward to.

Family Joyful—Dad's RHEUMATISM Has Left Him

When a man so crippled with rheumatism cannot go to his daily work and suddenly finds a swift, powerful yet safe prescription that drives out pain and agony in 48 hours you can imagine the jubilant happiness of the whole family as Dad brings home his pay envelope regularly again.

Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc. and leading druggists everywhere call this grand prescription ALLERGY and think so much of its mighty power to drive excess uric acid from the system that they guarantee one 85 cent bottle to overcome rheumatic pain and conquer backache, sciatica, neuritis and lumbago just as this notice states or money back—a square deal to all sufferers.

Woman Confesses Embezzlement Of Total Of $10,495

Woman Treasurer Of Old Ladies Home Near Philadelphia Confesses To Police

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 13.—A 62-year-old woman pleaded guilty in quarter sessions court to embezzling $10,495 from the Union Home for Old Ladies, a Philadelphia institution of which she was treasurer for a number of years.

The confessed embezzler is Mrs. Florence L. Green of Willow Grove. The peculations, which an accountant testified may total between $18,000 and $19,000, occurred during a two and one-half-year period. It was revealed that $9,200 of the stolen funds represented checks the aged woman had drawn for her own use at the rate of about $400 a month.

On the plea of defense counsel that Mrs. Green had already restored $3,500 of the funds, the court deferred sentence until Friday and permitted the woman to remain at liberty under $3,000 bail.

CHURCHMEN FACE RESPONSIBILITY

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 13.—The gravest responsibility facing churchmen everywhere is the preservation of Christianity's unbroken continuity, says Dr. Willard L. Sperry, widely known preacher, author and dean of the Theological school at Harvard University.

"Christianity has always been a slow, diverse and organic growth, with no break for possibly 2000 years," the lecturer said. "It is our job to see that Christianity's chain is unbroken, where we are at present—today is a day of uncertainty."

GROVE CITY HOME BURNS TO GROUND

GROVE CITY, Mar. 13.—The fifth fire in 18 months in the Hallville section of this city, destroyed the home of Dominick Monteleone, with all contents Sunday night, and damaged the adjoining residence of A. DiSalvo. The damage was estimated at $4,000, partially covered by insurance.

No suspicion of incendiaryism is attached to the latest blaze, since the family was at home when the fire broke out. In four previous fires in the same neighborhood, all broke out in the early morning hours, while families were visiting relatives in adjoining towns.

Union To Play Mt. Jackson In Season Windup

County League Teams Will Battle At Union High Floor Tonight

UNION CAN WIN COUNTY TITLE

Union High School basketball team will play Mt. Jackson High tonight at the Union High School floor in the windup of the 1934 season for both teams. Incidentally should Union win the battle tonight it will give them the Lawrence County Class A High School championship for the year. A defeat for Union will tie them up with three other schools for the leadership. The game will start at 8 o'clock.

Coach Davey Boyd has the Unionites at the top of their game and it looks like a big night for Union. Whether or not the long layoff from the last encounter will have any effect on the teams is a question. Coach Boyd will start his strongest lineup of Boron and Monico at the forwards, Schaas at center and White and Morrison at the guards; in an effort to win. E. Todd and Hughes will be held in reserve by Boyd.

Union Wants Victory

Mt. Jackson High will use a strong lineup including Macaluso and Bair at the forwards, Thompson at center, one of the ranking stars of the league, and Pitzer and daughter at the guards. The Spearman have not had much success this year, and are waiting for Union.

The Union Township fans are all keyed up over this game tonight and will pack the school gym for the battle. Union won the section 18 title only to lose to New Castle in the first game of the tourney. The Union fans feel that they have a championship team this year and will root hard for the boys of the Blue and White to come through tonight.

Five In Final Game

Union High fans will pay tribute tonight to five of the Union High boys who will be playing their final game for Union. Paul "Blond Terror" Morrison, "Red" Boron, Wayne White, Hughes, and Dom Monico will be through after the game with Mt. Jackson High. It will be their final effort and they hope to bring the county league title to the Union High trophy case.

A big pep meeting has been scheduled for Union High today and an effort is being made to get as many of the students as possible out to the game. Faculty Manager W. L. Burkhardt is making arrangements to handle a capacity crowd tonight. Mt. Jackson will send several hundred to Union for the game.

Unionites Excited.....
Union High has never had the county basketball championship, and tonight is the big opportunity. Union has finished second and third plenty of times, but never has Union taken a championship in basketball. This has spurred the fans and students of the school to a high pitch.

A defeat for Union will tie the county league title up with Bessemer, Shenandoah and New Wilmington still having a chance to win. It would require a playoff to settle the title.

The lineups—
Union High..... Mt. Jackson.
Monico..... F..... Macaluso
Boron..... F..... Bair
Schaas..... C..... Thompson
White..... G..... Pitzer
Morrison..... G..... Daugherty

East Brook A. A. Has Fine Meeting

F. J. Waddington Presides Over First Meeting Of 1934 Season For East Brook A. A.

East Brook Athletic Association held the first meeting of the 1934 season last night at the East Brook High building. F. J. Waddington newly elected president of the A. A. presided for the initial time. The Athletic Association hopes to make this a gala year.

Cincinnati Reds Hope To Climb Out Of Cellar In 1934

Mgr. Bob O'Farrell Hopes To Get Reds Clicking; Has New And Fast Infield

Veterans Will Help Reds Somewhat; Pitching Staff Is The Big Question

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

TAMPA, Fla., Mar. 13.—Among the delightfully informal and altogether appealing institutions hereabouts are the Cincinnati Reds who seem to be training here largely by day and devoting four hours a day to it. Nevertheless, the Reds appear to be going some place although Mr. O'Farrell, the new manager, may not know exactly where—except out of the cellar.

He was appointed too close to the training season to know just what he has yet but he's been a little fortunate. He knows what the Phillies and Dodgers haven't got. Mr. O'Farrell says, not without some justice that he can always beat a couple of "nothing" clubs.

Good Infield.
Now for facts, namely: the Reds have at least one side of an infield, Bottemley at first base and Tony Piet, from the Pirates, at second. Mr. O'Farrell cannot comprehend how the Pirates happened to let Piet go. He thinks Piet is the best second baseman in the league, not barring Frisch. On the right side, he has any number of candidates, some of whom are even fair.

He has "Sparky" Adams, Mark Koenig, from the Cubs; Tom Roberlo up from Rock Island; Walter Bohl from the same place and Leslie Mallon, from Toronto, for third base. Mallon, who failed with the Phillies, seems to have the job now. Adams having reached the stage where time has, indeed, aged and Hollingsworth, it seems, is a fast ball left hander with control. This means the difference between nothing and everything. La Vague, big but fast, is one of those legends who come along all too seldom. A catcher, he throws well, hits well and apparently knows the time of day. The other catchers are Ernest "Protuberant" Lombardi, and Clyde Manion. Also Jack Albert Crouch. But somehow I'm confident Crouch is about to set forth upon a long journey.

The outfield is simple; the pitching most complicated. They have eighteen pitchers in camp—that they know about. Not to tax Mr. O'Farrell with too great a strain upon his imagination, I asked him to name the four best and said he: "Larry Benton, Paul Derringer, Si Johnson and Arthur Charles Vance." His outfield is Adam Comorosky, from the Pirates; Chick Hafey ("the best outfielder in the league"—O'Farrell); Johnny Moore, from the Cubs; Harry Rice and John Gill from Chattanooga.

Westminster Rated Among Leading Basketball Teams Of The Country

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Mar. 13.—Rated as one of the five best college basketball teams of the country, Coach John Lawther's Westminster college court team adds new laurels to its eight-year record.

Jess Carver, sports writer in the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph, rates the leading teams as follows: (1) Pitt and Duquesne, (2) C. C. N. Y., (3) New York University, (4) Westminster, (5) Notre Dame, (6) Penn and Perdue. The Westminster Titans played C. C. N. Y., Pitt, and Duquesne, losing to City College in the second game of the season, on the second night of a hard road trip, defeated Duquesne once and lost to the Dukes, led Pitt at the half 16-11, but dropped to the Panthers.

A summary of all-star teams shows that, for the Pittsburgh area, Pitt, Duquesne, and Westminster have the most favored players.

Wes Bennett Leads Tri-State League Players For Season Just Ended

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Mar. 13.—Coach John Lawther's Westminster college basketball team again won the Tri-State Conference championship this season with 10 league victories and no defeats. Wes Bennett, Westminster center, led the league in scoring with 167 points, an average of 16.7 a game.

Waynesburg, runner-up for the league title, also has the runner-up for scoring honors. Janosik, who played forward and center for the Jacks, tallied 130 points in nine games to average 14.4 per game. Ginsberg of Geneva and Captain Douglass of Westminster were third and fourth in league scoring.

Large Crowd Sees Babe Ruth Train

(International News Service)
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Mar. 13.—Babe Ruth may be at the end of the trail as far as his playing days are concerned, but he can still draw the cash customers through the turnstiles.

A phenomenally large crowd turned out to see the great man in his first workout of the 1934 training season here and the Babe obliged his admirers by slapping the horsehide to all corners of the lot in typical Ruthian fashion.

Giants Again Top Athletics

(International News Service)
FT. MYERS, Fla., Mar. 13.—With Jimmy Fox, baseball's leading slugger playing first base, the A's and the New York Giants today were to play the final game of their five-game training camp series on the Athletics "home" grounds here.

There was nothing at stake, however, since the Giants clinched the series yesterday by defeating the American leaguers 4 to 3 in a ten inning game.

Spring Football Is Near At Hand

New Castle High Football Team Will Train As Soon As Weather Breaks

Spring football is the next thing on the New Castle High athletic calendar now that basketball is over until next December. The weatherman holds the destinies of spring football well in hand. As soon as the snow leaves and the ice and water gets off Taggart Field the gridgers will start to cavort.

Coach Phil H. Bridenbaugh is rather anxious to get a look at his 1934 material. There is a big problem ahead for the popular mentor. The question of a backfield is going to be the biggest worry. With stars such as Walter Kominic, Whitey Nickum, Archie Ridley and Freddy Lane gone, and not to mention the reliable Bill Seeth, it is not any wonder that Bridenbaugh wears a sad expression.

Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner is busily engaged in trying to lineup a suitable opponent for a night spring game here in either April or May. But, first the team must start to practice, and it is out of the question with the kind of arctic weather that we have been having. The fans will be all agog this year over the possibilities of winning a second Class AA conference title. New Castle was crowned champions last year when Greensburg High turned down an offer to play for the toga.

There is quite a lot of young material coming up from the ranks at both George Washington and Ben Franklin and it is expected that a few of the youngsters will make the grade with the "Red Hurricanes."

RAILROAD SHARES
HAVE GOOD TONE

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Mar. 13.—The stock market turned dull today as the list while maintaining itself slightly above yesterday's closing prices showed little disposition to resume the advance.

Commodity markets in the main, however, displayed independent strength. Cotton gained about 25 cents a bale, rubber continued to forge ahead, tin and cocoa moved slightly, but wheat turned irregular and silver sold won on profit-taking following yesterday's sharp spurt.

Passage of the bonus bill by the house found little reflection in today's market.

Railroad shares displayed the best tone as New York Central, Atchafson, Southern Railway and Illinois Central scored fractional gains.

United States Steel moved fractionally higher despite the unfavorable operations report. Other primary industrial shares were generally steady.

Motor shares were firm in light trading, with Chrysler and General Motors scoring fractional gains.

Auto accessory shares were steady. Atlas Powder was a feature in the specialty shares running up about 4 points on top of a similar gain yesterday. Other chemical shares were inclined to mark time.

Credit Association
Prepares To Make
Loans To Farmers

The Butler Production Credit association, which has been organized to make short-term loans to farmers in Butler, Beaver, Lawrence, Allegheny, Armstrong, Clarion and Jefferson counties, is one of the units of an agricultural credit reserve system which is designed to be a permanent service. Altogether, 582 production credit associations have been organized. They cover more than two-thirds of the country—32 states completely. The actual work of each association is being supervised by the Production Credit Corporation, organized in each district. The Butler Production Credit association is supervised by the Baltimore Production Credit Corporation.
The Baltimore corporation also agrees to subscribe to approximately 75 per cent of the capital stock of the Butler association. Funds obtained by the association from the sale of this stock to the corporation will be invested in high-grade securities, chiefly government bonds, and placed with the Baltimore Intermediate Credit bank as additional security for the notes of farmers which will be discounted.
The intermediate credit bank may then lend money on, or discount, accepting farmers' notes endorsed by the association—equal to five times the amount of the bonds deposited with it.
The authorized capital stock of the Butler Production Credit Association is $120,000. The Baltimore Production Credit corporation is prepared to pay in 75 per cent of this amount as needed; the money will be invested in bonds and placed with the intermediate credit bank, making possible a total of $90,000 in loans to farmers in the seven counties served by the Butler association.

Court Order In
Radiator Company
Case Handed Down

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Mar. 13.—A show cause rule ordering the National Radiator Corporation and its receivers to appear at a hearing here April 17 today had been granted complainants who are asking payment of $148,605 represented in sinking fund gold debentures held by them.

The rule orders Robert S. Waters and William G. Heiner, receivers of the company, to show cause why payment should not be made and why liens for the separate claims should not be granted the petitioners. It was handed down by Federal Judge R. M. Gibson.

Rudolph B. Fiershem, representing the organization committee and others, brought the action after the supreme court had referred the suit to the original court here.

Bridge Design
Is Criticised

Shade Tree Commission Had Nothing To Do With Construction

Members of the Shade Tree Commission met in Mayor Mayne's office today and declared the commission wished to be placed on record as opposed to the manner in which the West Washington street bridge was constructed.

It was explained that the commission had been accused of having had something to do with the construction so that plants could be grown within the center section. They denied having had anything to do with the construction.

The commission approved the request of Attorney Robert White to plant trees at his Hazelcroft avenue property and plans are being made by the Shade Tree commission to dedicate Gunton Park which is now a part of the city park system.

And Shakespeare might have added that they laugh at "nerves" who never felt a fit.

NEW YORK, Mar. 13.—Two persons were killed today and a third was dying as a result of New York's fourth tenement house fire in two weeks.

He ran to the building just in time to see his mother and his sister at the window of their fifth floor room trying to get away from the flames. His mother held a bundle in her arms. She threw it to the pavement. There were shrieks from witnesses as they realized its contents, a one year old baby. The woman and her 17-year-old daughter then jumped from the window.

When Blake rushed to the bundles on the sidewalk both his mother, Mrs. Mary Blake, 54, and his sister, Mary, 17, were dead. The baby, Calvin White, 10 months old, was living with a fractured skull. No hope was held for its recovery.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Clark Sees Niagara In Winter Raiment

H. O. Clark, of the Mt. Jackson road, had the pleasure of seeing one of the world's principal wonders, the Niagara Falls, at its most spectacular state last week end.

The falls has offered Jack Frost and Old Man Winter great opportunity to play their most artistic and magnificent tricks this winter. Gigantic stalagmites and stalactites have been formed, the largest residents of the district have seen in many years. The sight has been drawing record crowds.

Observations In 7th Ward

A violin made of 158 separate pieces of wood attracted interest here last week. It was handmade by the handy work of Grant Patton, of Ford City, who was visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Prater, of Wabash avenue. It had a sweet tone and was not at all hard to look at.

Visitors to Ford City Sunday were interested in the gigantic ice jams piled up on the banks of the Allegheny at turns in the river. The river itself was clear of any ice.

Do you know any local men who sport these nicknames: Checkerboard, Moose, Soupbone, Minney, Bobo, Poyeye, Scorpion, Hippo, Snowey, Lazz, Duke, Pintos, Dutch, Bus, Butch, Pete, Scarecrow, Ike, Mac, Slim, Babe and Shanty?

Three men, all of whom appeared to be suffering from the Multiplying Eye, smashed their Ohio licensed roadster into a telephone pole on Montgomery avenue during the early hours of Monday morning. The car was able to limp away and neither the telephone pole or the three whoopee makers seemed to be any the worse for the collision.

WADDELL'S CONDITION IS REPORTED AS FAIR

Richard Waddell, of North Liberty street, who was taken to the Jameson Memorial hospital Sunday after being found in the early morning on East Cherry street extension with both feet and his left hand frozen, was reported late Monday afternoon as getting along "fairly" well.

Young Waddell had evidently become ill while walking toward his home Saturday night, fallen down, and lain there for a time. Although an operation had not been performed yesterday afternoon it is possible that it may be necessary.

Alvin Factor Is Being Guarded By Coast Detectives

Threat Is Received That Kidnapers Are After Son Of John "Jake" Factor Again

(International News Service)

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 13.—Four picked detectives today guarded Alvin Factor, 18-year-old son of John "Jake the Barber" Factor of Chicago following what was believed to have been a plot to kidnap the boy for ransom.

Authorities said they had received a mysterious "tip" that gangsters had plotted to kidnap Alvin and to compel his father, himself a recent kidnap victim, to pay a huge ransom.

One alleged effort to kidnap the boy miscarried yesterday, his uncle, Robert Cowan, told officers.

Young Factor has been in hiding since his arrival from Chicago. He was brought here after his wealthy father was kidnapped and compelled to pay ransom for his release.

TO AID STUDENTS IN COLLEGE COURSE

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 13.—The establishments of 43 new open scholarships has been announced by the board of trustees of Temple University to aid the large number of students who are finding it increasingly difficult to finance a college education.

The scholarships will be distributed among 400 high schools in 23 counties throughout Pennsylvania, and will be awarded on the basis of "scholarship standing and qualities of leadership." They will become effective with the opening of the new school year in September.

An open scholarship covers a three-year period and is equivalent to a total of $400 toward the tuition for a four-year degree course.

If the insured isn't really totally disabled, he will be by the time he gets through trying to collect.
